

Saturday morning

My dear Sir

It will not be in my power to go to Shanleam until tomorrow, but in the mean time I beg of you to write a note to Sir John Franklin to Dublin, (or any where else when he may be in the world,) telling him to come here this morning as you have got a wind blowing which (unless he is very hard to be pleased) must satisfy him -

I am my dear Sir
 with the kindest remembrance to those to whom delightful Society you introduced me

Yours most sincerely

T. Steele
